As a world leader in bioplastics certification, TÜV AUSTRIA is extremely vigilant on any misuse of its conformity marks.

The vast majority of our customers scrupulously follow the rules for correct use of marks and logos on which TÜV AUSTRIA and its certificates' reputation is based.

However, we cannot help but note that some companies, whether customers or not, are at times making deceptive use, or even misuse of our marks. These uses may take various forms:

- Deceptive declarations, which mislead a consumer, such as: “product manufactured with OK biobased compliant materials”, “developed in accordance with OK compost requirements”;
- Declaration of conformity with a TÜV AUSTRIA mark without the product in question having been duly certified. This declaration may take various forms (marketing documentation, website, ...) ;
- Use of an invalid certificate (expired or declared void);
- Changing the characteristics of a certified product without informing TÜV AUSTRIA of this;
- Altering a certificate issued for another product or another company;
- Using a mark or logo on a product without this being formally certified ;

As part of its quality policy, and to protect the integrity of its marks, TÜV AUSTRIA systematically pursues any declaration liable to damage its reputation as well as that of its customers. Among the range of legal and other options possible, communication plays a vital role. This is why TÜV AUSTRIA regularly publishes the list of deceptive uses or misuses.

En tant que leader mondial de la certification de bioplastiques, TÜV AUSTRIA est extrêmement vigilant à tout mauvais usage de ses marques de conformité. La très grande majorité de nos clients suit scrupuleusement les règles de bon usage des marques et logos qui ont fait la réputation de TÜV AUSTRIA et de ses certificats.

Toutefois, nous sommes obligés de constater que certaines sociétés, clientes ou non, font parfois un usage tendancieux, voire abusif de nos marques. Ces usages peuvent se présenter sous différentes formes :

- Déclarations tendancieuses, induisant le consommateur en erreur, telles que : « produit fabriqué avec des matières conformes à OK biobased », « développé en conformité avec les exigences de OK compost » ;
- Déclaration de conformité à une marque de TÜV AUSTRIA sans que le produit en question ne soit dûment certifié. Cette déclaration peut se présenter sous différentes formes (documentation commerciale, site internet, ...) ;
- Usage d'un certificat périmé (échu ou annulé) ;
- Modification des caractéristiques d'un produit certifié sans que TÜV AUSTRIA n'en soit informé ;
- Altération d'un certificat émis pour un autre produit ou pour une autre société ;
- Apposition d'une marque ou logo sur un produit sans que celui-ci ne soit formellement certifié ;

Dans le cadre de sa politique de qualité, et afin de protéger l'intégrité de ses marques, TÜV AUSTRIA poursuit systématiquement toute déclaration susceptible de nuire à sa réputation ainsi qu'à celle de ses clients. Als wereldleider op het vlak van de certificatie van bioplastics waakt TÜV AUSTRIA zeer streng over elk misbruik van zijn conformiteitsmerktekens.

De overgrote meerderheid van onze klanten volgen nauwgezet de regels voor het correct gebruik van de merktekens en logo's waarop de reputatie van TÜV AUSTRIA en zijn certificaten gebaseerd is.

Toch stellen we vast dat sommige ondernemingen, al dan niet klanten van ons, onze merktekens soms op een tendentieuze of zelfs onrechtmatige manier gebruiken. Dat kan verschillende vormen aannemen:

- Tendentieuze verklaringen die de consument misleiden, zoals: “product geproduceerd met stoffen die conform OK biobased zijn”, “ontwikkeld in overeenstemming met de vereisten van OK compost”.
- Verklaring van overeenstemming met een merkteken van TÜV AUSTRIA zonder dat het product in kwestie naar behoren gecertificeerd is. Deze verklaring kan verschillende vormen aannemen (commercieel document, website, ...).
- Gebruik van een ongeldig certificaat (verlopen of nietig verklaard).
- Wijziging van de eigenschappen van een gecertificeerd product zonder dat TÜV AUSTRIA daarvan op de hoogte is gebracht.
- Wijziging van een certificaat dat is afgegeven voor een ander product of voor een andere firma.
- Aanbrengen van een merkteken of een logo op een product zonder dat dat formeel gecertificeerd is.

In het kader van zijn kwaliteitsbeleid en om de integriteit van zijn merktekens te vrijwaren, stelt TÜV AUSTRIA systematisch vervolging in tegen elke verklaring die zijn reputatie en die van zijn klanten kan schaden. In quanto leader mondiale nella certificazione delle bioplastiche, TÜV AUSTRIA è estremamente attenta a tutti gli usi scorretti dei propri marchi di conformità.

La grande maggioranza dei nostri clienti segue scrupolosamente le regole del corretto uso dei marchi e loghi che hanno costruito la reputazione di TÜV AUSTRIA e dei suoi certificati.

Tuttavia, siamo costretti a constatare che alcune aziende, clienti o non, a volte fanno un uso improprio, per non dire abusivo dei nostri marchi. Questi possono presentarsi sotto diverse forme:

- Dichiarazioni ingannevoli, che inducono il consumatore in errore, quali "prodotto fabbricato con materiali conformi a OK biobased", "sviluppati in conformità con i requisiti di OK compost" ;
- Dichiarazione di conformità a un marchio TÜV AUSTRIA senza che il prodotto in questione ne sia debitamente certificato. Questa dichiarazione può essere presentata sotto diverse forme (documentazione commerciale, sito internet, ...);
- L'uso di un certificato obsoleto (scaduto o annullato) ;
- Modifica delle caratteristiche di un prodotto certificato senza che TÜV AUSTRIA ne sia informata;
- Alterazione di un certificato rilasciato per un altro prodotto o per un'altra Società;
- Apposizione di un marchio o logo su un prodotto senza che questo sia stato formalmente certificato;

Nell'ambito della sua politica di qualità, e al fine di proteggere l'integrità dei suoi marchi, TÜV AUSTRIA persegue sistematicamente qualsiasi dichiarazione che possa danneggiare la propria reputazione così come quella dei suoi clienti. Como líder mundial en la certificación de bioplásticos, TÜV AUSTRIA vigila con atención cualquier mal uso de sus marcas de conformidad.

La gran mayoría de nuestros clientes siguen minuciosamente las normas para el uso adecuado de las marcas y logotipos en los que se basa la reputación de TÜV AUSTRIA y de sus certificados.

Sin embargo, no podemos evitar mencionar que algunos clientes, ya sean clientes o no, a veces hacen un uso engañoso, o incluso mal uso de nuestras marcas. Estos usos pueden ser de diversa índole:

- Declaraciones engañosas, que inducen a error al consumidor, tales como: "producto fabricado con materiales conforme a OK biobased", "desarrollado conforme a los requisitos de OK compost";
- Declaración de conformidad con una marca TÜV AUSTRIA sin que el producto en cuestión haya sido debidamente certificado. Esta declaración puede adoptar diversas formas (documentación de marketing, página web, ...);
- Uso de un certificado no válido (caducado o declarado nulo);
- Modificación de las características de un producto certificado sin informar a TÜV AUSTRIA sobre ello;
- Manipular un certificado emitido para otro producto u otra compañía;
- Usar una marca o logotipo en un producto sin que esto esté formalmente certificado;

Como parte de su política de calidad, y para proteger la integridad de sus marcas, TÜV AUSTRIA persigue sistemáticamente cualquier declaración que pueda dañar su reputación y la de sus clientes. Als weltweiter Marktführer bei der Zertifizierung von Biokunststoffen ist TÜV AUSTRIA im Hinblick auf jegliche missbräuchliche Verwendung seiner Konformitätskennzeichnungen äußerst wachsam.

Die überwiegende Mehrzahl unserer Kunden hält sich strikt an die Regeln für die korrekte Verwendung von Marken und Logos, auf denen der Ruf von TÜV AUSTRIA und von seinen Zertifikaten basiert.

Dennoch müssen wir immer wieder feststellen, dass manche Kunden, ob wirklich Kunden oder nicht, unsere Marken zuweilen irreführend oder sogar missbräuchlich verwenden. Diese irreführenden oder missbräuchlichen Verwendungen können in unterschiedlichen Formen erfolgen:

- Irreführende Angaben, die einen Verbraucher in die Irre führen, wie zum Beispiel: „Produkt mit OK-biobasierten konformen Materialien hergestellt“, „entwickelt in Übereinstimmung mit OK-Kompost-Anforderungen“;
- Konformitätserklärung mit einem TÜV AUSTRIA Zeichen, ohne dass das betreffende Produkt ordnungsgemäß zertifiziert worden ist. Diese Erklärung kann in verschiedenen Formen erfolgen (Marketingunterlagen, Webseite, etc.);
- Verwendung eines ungültigen Zertifikats (abgelaufen oder für ungültig erklärt);
- Änderung der Charakteristika eines zertifizierten Produkts, ohne TÜV AUSTRIA darüber zu informieren;
- Abänderung eines Zertifikats, das für ein anderes Produkt oder ein anderes Unternehmen ausgestellt wurde;
- Verwendung einer Marke oder eines Logos auf einem Produkt, ohne dass dieses formell zertifiziert worden ist;

Als Teil seiner Qualitätspolitik und zum Schutz der Integrität seiner Marken verfolgt TÜV AUSTRIA systematisch jegliche Deklaration, die seinen Ruf sowie den seiner Kunden schädigen könnte. Neben der Bandbreite von rechtlichen und weiteren möglichen Optionen spielt die Kommunikation eine entscheidende Rolle. Daher veröffentlicht TÜV AUSTRIA regelmäßig die Liste irreführender oder missbräuchlicher Verwendungen.
